

Meet Sarah

---

Lead Facilitator, Best Selling Author, and Executive Coach.

Sports lover, Cricket Fanatic and Rugby Devotee.

“

---

Inspiring leaders walk in a room and quickly elicit the 'I'll follow you anywhere' response from their audience, no matter who they are.

---

”

About Sarah

With more than 25 years of experience in business, Sarah started her career with AstraZeneca, where she was awarded the Top Salesperson of the Year award. She then headed up the development of the largest sales force in the pharmaceutical industry.

Sarah is a pioneer in the field of Executive Presence. She is a seasoned learning and development professional, qualified Executive Coach, published author and award winning Personal Branding expert. She is a member of the Corporate Coach University and graduated from its Corporate Coach Programme, which is accredited by the International Coaching Federation.

Sarah holds a Masters in Image Consulting in the UK, is a Certified Image Professional in the USA and is also a Fellow of The Federation of Image Professionals International. As such, she is one of only two professionals in the world to achieve this level of qualification and accreditation within the global image industry.

Sample Clients:

London Business School, Barclays, Channel 4, EE, BNP Paribas, GE, Michael Kors and Heathrow.